At the outset Principal gave an overview of actions taken in the College to prevent any ragging.

a) He stated that a meeting was held on 28th September 2011 along with students and parents where they were briefed about the "no ragging campus of SNIMS". During the meeting, one of the Senior Students Mr. Aslam K Ahamed, Chairman of the students council, welcomed the freshers and assured that seniors will be friendly, look after the freshers and will not involve in any ragging or teasing activities.

b) The freshers were kept in separate area's from the regular mess. Their meal times also are separately planned.

c) Special care takers have been allotted for the freshers.

d) Extra Securities have been deployed to monitor any suspicious activity.

e) The 1st MBBS students (2010 batch) was addressed by the Principal twice and exhorted not to have any activities which may amount to ragging.

- f) Principal also stated that 2010 batch is proceeding on prolonged leave after conclusion of Examination by 1st week of October . He also stated that this batch will be busy with 1st MBBS Examination till then.
- g) Anti ragging Campaign meeting is scheduled to be held on 15th October 2011 where the Sessions Judge , President and Secretary of Bar Association and Advocate of North Paravur and DYSP of Aluva rural area have been invited to address the students and take classes.
- 4) Dr. Joseph John, Assistant Warden of Boys hostel briefed about the measures taken in the boys hostel to prevent any ragging. He stated that since there is a complete separation and physical barrier, Juniors and Seniors will not be able to meet while at the hostel.
- 5) Dr. Abhishek Sinha stated that he has been monitoring the approach roads to hostel and colleges.
- 6) Mr. Jayaram and Mrs. Jayasree stated that the 2009 batch students are very cordial in their behaviour and that 2010 batch is busy with Examination preparations.
- 7) As Mr. Nelson, Security Supervisor could not attend the meeting, he was briefed separately for deploying security personnel in the college and in the hostel to monitor any interaction between Junior and Senior Students .
- 8) Flex board display has been arranged depicting the names and mobile numbers of anti ragging squad and encouraging fresher s to call the number in case of any necessity.

The meeting concluded by 4.00 p.m.
